

We must not let the NAB dictate how, and what we listen to over this latest and great technology. If it weren't for XM satellite radio, I doubt that I'd ever turn on my radio. XM is a huge stress reliever and serves as a much needed option to the trash one is constantly subjected to on the "normal" media outlets.

God Bless XM and its' innovators.